Public Hearing: Water Improvement Project
Minutes Public Hearing
November 03, 2016
The hearing was opened at 6:00 PM and was help at the Larsen Sant-Library.
In attendance were the Mayor, four council members, city engineer, the city clerk and city tree Susan Lorenz from SICOG. About six citizens attended.	easurer and
A brief history of the water project was presented to the citizens, the scope of the work to be in the project; the schedule and location of the project were explained by the mayor and the The Mayor discussed the beneficiaries, the budget and the project costs.	•
The project description was presented by Mark Owns, the City Engineer who is handling the project description was presented by Mark Owns, the City Engineer who is handling the project description was presented by Mark Owns, the City Engineer who is handling the project description was presented by Mark Owns, the City Engineer who is handling the project description was presented by Mark Owns, the City Engineer who is handling the project description was presented by Mark Owns, the City Engineer who is handling the project description was presented by Mark Owns, the City Engineer who is handling the project description was presented by Mark Owns, the City Engineer who is handling the project description was presented by Mark Owns, the City Engineer who is handling the project description was presented by Mark Owns, the City Engineer who is handling the project description was presented by Mark Owns, the City Engineer who is handling the project description was presented by the City Engineer who is handling the project description was presented by the City Engineer who is a project description was presented by the City Engineer who is a project description was presented by the City Engineer who is a project description was presented by the City Engineer who is a project description was presented by the City Engineer who is a project description which is a project description	oroject.
Only one comment was received. The citizen expressed a desire that the city remove the old sell it to help raise funds.	pipe and
The meeting was adjourned at 8:00.
Linda Acock, Clerk  Mark W. Beckstead, Mayor	